

U.A. 2 : Normatividad sobre Calidad del Aire Interior

TEMA 2.3

Fuentes de conocimientos regionales

Comisión Panamericana de Normas Técnicas – COPANT

- Inicios: 12 de julio de 1949
- Integrantes:
 - ✓ 32 miembros activos y 9 miembros adherentes.
- Fines:
 - ✓ Referente de normalización técnica y evaluación de la conformidad de los países de las Américas y sus pares internacionales.
 - ✓ Promueve el desarrollo de sus miembros, identificando sus necesidades y satisfaciéndolas con excelencia, calidad y prontitud.

The screenshot shows the official website of the Comisión Panamericana de Normas Técnicas (COPANT). The header features the COPANT logo, which includes a stylized globe and the acronym 'COPANT' in red. Below the logo, the text 'Comisión Panamericana de Normas Técnicas', 'Pan American Standards Commission', and 'Comissão Panamericana de Normas Técnicas' is displayed. The top navigation bar includes links for 'INICIO', 'COPANT', 'NOTICIAS', 'PARA MIEMBROS', 'NORMALIZACIÓN', 'PROYECTOS', 'ENLACES', and 'RECURSOS C-19'. A world map is visible on the right side of the header. The main content area contains a brief description of COPANT as a civil association without profit, with full autonomy and no end date. It mentions the 32 active members and 9 associate members. Below this, there is a section titled 'Recursos COVID-19' featuring an image of a virus. To the right, there is a 'NOVEDADES' section listing recent events like 'TALLER INTERCAMBIO SOBRE APOYO DE LOS ONN A APlicar LAS NORMAS DE CONTINUIDAD DE NEGOCIOS EN LAS ORGANIZACIONES'. On the far right, there is a 'Twitter' section with a small icon and the text 'COPANT @COPANTNormas'.

Estándares en la Unión Europea

- Inicios: 1 de noviembre de 1993
- Integrantes: 27 países europeos
- Fines:
 - ✓ Cuenta con algunas de las normas medioambientales más estrictas del mundo para proteger la naturaleza y la calidad de vida de las personas.
 - ✓ Ecologizar la economía y lograr una utilización prudente y racional de los recursos naturales.

The screenshot shows the official website of the European Union. At the top, there is a banner with the text "An official website of the European Union" and "How do you know?". Below the banner, the "Your Europe European Union" logo is displayed, along with language selection ("English EN") and a search bar. The main navigation menu includes links for "Running a business", "Taxation", "Selling in the EU", "Human resources", "Product requirements" (which is underlined in blue, indicating it's the current section), "Finance and funding", and "Dealing with customers". A breadcrumb navigation path is visible at the top of the content area: "Your Europe > Business > Product requirements > Standards > Standards in Europe". On the right side of the content area, a small text "Last checked: 25/08/2020" is visible. The main title of the page is "Standards in Europe". Below the title, there is a section titled "ON THIS PAGE" with links to "Main benefits of using standards", "European standards", "Harmonised standards", and "How to find a standard". To the right of this sidebar, there is a box containing the text "Coronavirus: European standards for medical supplies" and a link to "Standards and other standardisation publications are voluntary guidelines providing technical specifications for products, services, and processes - from industrial safety helmets or chargers for electronic devices to service quality levels in public transport. Standards are developed by private standardisation organisations usually on the initiative of stakeholders who see a need to apply a standard. Although standards as such are voluntary, using them proves that your products and services reach a certain level of quality, safety, and reliability.".

